LETTER FROM THE DEAN

Nizar Becheikh
The academic year 2016 - 2017 has been another year full of achievements for the AUC School of Business. Maintaining our Triple Crown accreditation came to confirm the school academic leadership in Egypt, the Arab Region, Africa, and beyond. We are proud to continue to be the only triple crown accredited business school in the Middle East and North Africa region, and among less than 1 percent of business schools worldwide to receive the AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA accreditations. The Triple Crown, together with the ACCA accreditation obtained by our Department of Accounting, and the ACCET accreditation received by our Executive Education unit, represent a clear vote of confidence in the school's strategy, governance, and processes, and a recognition of the world-class quality of our programs, the high caliber of our research, and the depth and impact of our engagement at the local, regional and international levels.

We have also successfully joined CEMS to become the first business school in the Middle East and Africa to join the prestigious Global Alliance in Management Education. Jointly offering the top-ranked CEMS Master’s in Management will provide our students with another opportunity to pursue a world-class academic program that is in line with the school’s liberal-arts, experiential-learning and “glocalized” approach to business education.

Excitement has been at fever pitch throughout the year with these remarkable achievements and many others addressed in greater detail in this report. This culminated in a confirmation of the school leadership in the region by the recently released Eduniversal ranking of business schools, where the AUC School of Business came first and best business school in the Arab region and Africa.

These achievements are the result of relentless efforts and an exceptional engagement of all stakeholders including our distinguished faculty members, staff, students, alumni, Strategic Advisory Board members, employers, as well as our local and international partners. I would like to warm heartedly thank the whole school team for their invaluable input, precious support, exceptional dedication, wonderful team spirit, and effective and affective collegiality. Thanks to your extraordinary commitment, the AUC School of Business is standing out today as leading business school in Egypt, the Arab region, and Africa, and one of the top business schools in the world.

The journey continues and the school is looking forward to more successes with several initiatives in the pipeline. We invite you to be part of this journey. Whether you are a potential student, an academic institution, a professional corporation, a potential sponsor, or an individual or an organization interested in joining efforts with us, you are most welcome to join us and integrate our network. Together we will build a brighter future for our children and for our society!

I hope you enjoy this report and I look forward to continuing the journey of excellence with you!
